

SCHÄMT
EUCH

The image features the German phrase "SCHÄMT EUCH" (Shame yourselves) in a bold, white, hand-drawn font. The text is set against a solid black background. The letters are thick and slightly irregular, giving it a graffiti-like appearance. Several blue paint splatters of varying sizes are scattered across the text, particularly on the 'S', 'H', 'Ä', 'M', and 'T' of the first line, and the 'E', 'U', and 'C' of the second line. The splatters are bright blue and have a dripping, textured quality, suggesting they were applied with a brush or spray can.
